

Statutory Notice of Forthcoming Executive Key Decision

Published in Accordance with The Local Authorities (Executive Arrangements) (Meetings and Access to Information) (England) Regulations 2012 ("the Regulations")

Title:	Resident Parking Schemes in Lancashire
Summary:	The Cabinet Member for Highways and Transport on 3 February 2016 approved a report in relation to 'Residents Parking Schemes: Administration and Charges'. The report covered the standardisation of parking permit charges for schemes administered by the County Council. The report also covered the point that schemes administered by district councils on behalf of the County Council should also be considered for the introduction of this standard charge along with the centralisation of the administration of the resident permits to the County Council. This report recommends further steps relating to this and reports on the implications for both the county and district councils.
