Civic Pride Rossendale (CPR) works to provide people who live, work, go to school or visit the area with a cleaner, safer, greener environment. We clear litter, create, regenerate and maintain public gardens, engendering pride in the community. CPR has concentrated its activities in the Rawtenstall area. Our work has made a significant difference, creating litter free areas of colour and beauty for all to enjoy. Our achievements have recently been recognised with the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service.

We are now extending this activity into the Waterfoot area starting with Trickett's Memorial Gardens on Burnley Road East. By clearing away the overgrowth, and injecting colour and warmth with vibrant new planting, pots and hanging baskets we will transform the garden. We will also plant an area with herbs and edible plants. We will ensure that the gardens are fully accessible for the disabled. There is only one bench in the whole of the memorial gardens. We would like to install more benches so that local residents can meet in the gardens, sit and relax whilst enjoying the sensory experience of the flowers and trees. This will engender a greater community spirit in this small urban town.

The figures here, together with the figures in 4.6 should add up to the total cost in 4.5.

4.8 If you do not get all the funds, or only a percentage of what you require, you need to tell us what will happen to your proposed activity.

It is possible, that your application may be supported, but not for the full amount of funds. If this happens, we need to know if you can continue with your activity, e.g. you may provide an activity for half the intended period.

The activity to reclaim and replant the Memorial Gardens would continue but we would not be able to start to install additional benches.
