Raising Awareness of Autism in the community, as its World Autism Awareness Day 2nd April 2018.

AUTISM, ADHD, communication needs, sensory and other disability children and young people cannot access mainstream settings easily and so require tailor made groups to meet their needs.

The project will address the gap in social care provision for children and young people with diagnosis of hidden conditions locally. It will recognise the need for high quality, supported opportunities for children and young people with impaired social and communication skills to recognise their own challenges and be better able to meet them.

It will recognise the views and opinions of the children and young people and work towards reducing the barriers to their inclusion and it will give the wider community the opportunity to better understand hidden impairments and the impact they have on individuals and the families. Each of the children and young people will have they own requirements and the project aims to recognise that and help equip them with the life skills necessary to be more successful in achieving their aspirations.
