Executive Summary

This report relates to training which members of the Board have received since the last meeting and gives individuals an opportunity to provide feedback on their experience.

Recommendation

Individual members of the Board are asked to provide feedback on their experience of any internal/external or online pension related training referred to in the report.

Background and Advice

At the meeting on the 29th March 2019 the Pension Fund Committee agreed a revised Training Policy which set out the Fund's approach to supporting the learning and development needs of individuals with responsibility for the strategic direction, governance and oversight of the Lancashire County Pension Fund through their membership of the Pension Fund Committee or the Lancashire Local Pension Board.

Since the last meeting the following conferences, events and workshops have been attended by members of the Board:

17th October 2019, 14th November 2019 and 5th December 2020 - Fundamentals Training Programme at the Marriott Hotel, Leeds, attended by Mr T Pounder.

5th November 2019 – Workshop on the role of the Local Authority Pensions Fund Forum (LAPFF) on Climate Change and lobbying at County Hall, Preston, attended by Ms K Haigh and K Wallbank.

15th November 2019 – Your Pension Service Practitioners Conference at the Hallmark Hotel, Leyland, attended by Ms Y Moul.

The Training Record for the Lancashire Local Pension Board has been updated to reflect the above.
