

Hendon Brook Short Stay School

Notice is given that Lancashire County Council, PO Box 100, County Hall, Preston, PR1 0LD intends to close Hendon Brook Short Stay School, Townhouse Road, Nelson, BB9 8BP on 31 August 2020.

Although a small number of pupils will remain on the school roll until August, none are currently being educated at the school site. All have been found places at other schools in the area. There is sufficient capacity to meet the needs of any potential future admissions at other education establishments.

The proposal arises due to a long term decline in educational standards at the school and the availability of places at other settings.
