Many thanks to those schools who have already returned their annual self-evaluation survey for RE. If you haven't yet had the chance, the deadline for submission is 30th September. The SACRE are keen to gather views from schools and it is hoped that participation is as high as possible to provide a full picture of the impact and effectiveness of RE teaching across the county.

Instructions and an online click form have already been sent to schools. If you haven't received them, please contact advisory.support@lancashire.gov.uk

Call for help

Do you have any RE related images or pictures to share with other schools on the new RE website?

Hopefully you will have successfully registered on the new LPDS website (<https://www.lancashire.gov.uk/lpds/>) and gained access to the RE syllabus resources. If you are having any technical difficulties, please contact the LPDS team on 01257 516100 or email lpds@lancashire.gov.uk

Although all content has been moved across, we are aiming to improve the 'look' of the RE section as it does currently look quite uninspiring!

Rather than transferring old images, we are inviting schools to send in any recent images of RE displays or pupil outcomes that can be uploaded to the site. We aim to celebrate the exciting things that are taking place in RE across Lancashire!

When submitting an image, please make sure that you include a clear title that credits the image to your school.

Images can be submitted to advisory.support@lancashire.gov.uk

The Story Tent

The Story Tent offers free, easily accessible resources to support teaching at KS2. Using the resources, pupils learn about religion and worldviews through the lens of story. Stories are organised around 6 big questions:

- How can we be peacemakers?
- How can we care for our planet?
- How did it all begin?
- It's not fair!
- What makes a good leader?
- Where can we find wisdom?

Some of these big questions dovetail nicely with the lines of enquiry in the Lancashire Agreed Syllabus.
