

Item 6 – Coastal Access

Preparations for infrastructure replacements between Tarleton Lock and the boundary with Blackpool are being progressed for the sections of the King Charles III England Coast Path where existing public access rights exist. Due to land management changes a section of the approved line at Preston Docks requires a deviation. Once the revised line is determined works to the sections where new rights are being created will be undertaken and the route signed to enable Coastal Access Rights to commence.

Julie Paton

Public Rights of Way Capital Project Officer