

The recycling centres will accept household rubbish delivered by:

- A car with or without a single axle trailer (up to 3m long)
- A van or trade vehicle (with no more than 4 wheels) with a permit
- A twin axle trailer (up to 3m long) with a permit
- A pedestrian with a permit

A van is:

- Any vehicle without side rear windows
- Any flat-back vehicle excluding standard domestic pick-ups

The length of a trailer refers to the area used to carry the waste, not the rear lights or the towing mechanism.

The recycling centres will not accept household rubbish delivered by:

- Any vehicle with more than four wheels
- Any tipper vehicle
- Any trailer more than 3 metres long
- Any vehicle carrying trade waste
