BID NO.	PROJECT DETAILS
1.	Arts Development The funding will help to establish the Leeds and Liverpool Canal corridor through Pennine Lancashire as an exemplar of socially engaged arts, reflecting its extraordinary cultural diversity and creativity. Funding was agreed at last year's JAC meeting to fund for the next three years. This is the second year of funding.	£3,000.00	£3,000.00
2.	Leisure A community engagement project which brings two regional arts organisations into a partnership with two Burnley organisations, with a focus on engaging residents in (initial wards) Trinity and Bank Hall, and then programme work with those residents for the wider residents of Burnley. HOME is something that we all have a connection with, it has many emotional connotations and this will be used as a common ground to talk to people from different backgrounds, ages and experiences and in turn bring them together.	£12,500.00	£12,500.00
