1.	County Councillor John Potter	Item 8 - School Place Planning Delivery Programme 2024-27	The black hole in the City Deal finances appears to have driven this county council to not prioritise spending on educational infrastructure in North West Preston. The decisions in the report read like they have come from a place of last minute panic rather than sensible long term thinking. I would like the cabinet member to explain why the allocated land for a high school in North West Preston, which was secured by planning permission for £1 several years ago, has not been made ready for use earlier.	County Councillor Jayne Rear
