Brief Summary

To consider a request from the committee to establish a deep dive session and working group on the emerging SEND Strategy for 2025-2028.

(The reason for the report being presented as an item of urgent business to Scrutiny Management Board is the need to expedite the matter and facilitate in-depth scrutiny in contributing to the development of the strategy during the further consultation and workshops stage in January 2025).

Recommendation

The Scrutiny Management Board is asked to consider establishing:

- (i) A Deep Dive session to discuss the emerging themes and give input into the development of the SEND Strategy 2025-2028.
- (ii) A Working Group for the purpose of providing long term input into SEND Strategy.

Detail

At its meeting held on 6 November 2024, the Children, Families and Skills Scrutiny Committee considered a report on the Development of a SEND Strategy 2025-2028.

The report set out emerging themes, priorities and next steps and invited the committee to consider how best it could engage with the development of the strategy.

The committee resolved to ask the Scrutiny Management Board to establish a Deep Dive session to discuss the emerging themes as outlined in the report and provide input into the development of the SEND strategy 2025-2028. The committee also resolved to ask the Board to consider establishing a Working Group for the purpose of providing long term input into SEND Strategy.

The Board is asked to consider the requests from the Children, Families and Skills Scrutiny Committee.
