Consultation Document

What are we proposing to do?

This consultation document is about the future of Hendon Brook Short Stay School, Nelson, including its proposed closure, with effect from 31 August 2020.

This document outlines the main reasons for proposing the closure. This is due to a range of factors, including continuing low standards of education at the school and the development of alternative education settings to meet the needs of children in the area.

Foreword

Lancashire County Council has a statutory duty to provide alternative provision for every child who has been permanently excluded from primary or secondary schools. In achieving this, like many other authorities, there are challenges. Changing education policy and demographic factors mean that we must constantly review the number and location of the school places we provide and ensure that schools meet the needs of children in the county.

Lancashire is a large, diverse county served by some superb schools and we are committed to building on this to raise standards and opportunities for all children and young people.

The county council and schools work together with parents and other service providers to help our children to be safe, to enjoy and to achieve. We want all children and their parents to have pride in their school and cultivate an appetite for lifelong learning.

Lancashire County Council aims to provide schools that meet the needs of our communities wherever possible, and in this instance it is our belief that educational needs can be better met elsewhere, which means we must propose a school closure.

We hope that you will take the opportunity during this consultation period to let us know your views on what Lancashire County Council are proposing to do. The views you share with us about any possible alternative options for the school are important to us and will be used to shape the decisions that need to be taken.

PART ONE

Our vision and what we would like to achieve

Education is a powerful means of transforming and enriching lives and communities. Future success and well-being depends on strong creative partnerships, new ways of working, high expectations and a belief that we all have a part to play and can make a difference together.

Lancashire County Council is committed to improving the quality of educational provision to help raise standards for all learners.

We know that schools can face challenges in meeting pupils' needs, and that in some cases changes to the pattern of school organisation in an area can help improve opportunities and raise standards.

On the 13th June 2019, the Cabinet Member for Children, Young People and Schools approved the formal consultation on a proposal to close Hendon Brook Short Stay School with effect from 31 August 2020.

If the proposal is approved, existing pupils will be assisted to find places at alternative education provision.

PART TWO

Proposal

The proposal is to close Hendon Brook Short Stay School in Nelson, with effect from 31 August 2020.

Ofsted inspection

The most recent Ofsted inspection of the school took place in April 2017, rating the school as inadequate and in need of special measures in order to improve. A monitoring visit was undertaken by Ofsted in January 2019, which concluded the school was not taking sufficient action to remove the need for special measures.

Conversion to an alternative provision (AP) academy

As a result of the inspection judgment and in line with national policy, attempts were made to convert the school to an alternative provision academy, as part of a multi-academy trust (MAT). Despite extensive discussions, this proved unsuccessful, and there is now little prospect of a MAT being willing to take over the school.

Pupil numbers

The school has capacity for 34 pupils, aged 4 to 11, who have been permanently excluded from other schools or who are at risk of exclusion. Owing to the continuing low standards at the school, the local authority has decided to restrict the number of new admissions, which means that there are currently only 17 pupils on roll.

The impact of this is that the school's costs are much higher than its income. By law, schools have to set a balanced budget, which the school is not able to do, which means it is no longer financially viable.

Leadership and teaching

Since October 2018, the school has not had a permanent headteacher and has had to rely on a number of consultant part-time heads. The school has also struggled to recruit and retain good staff and has had to rely on temporary supply staff to plug gaps. This has an impact on the quality of teaching, pupil behaviour and the results achieved by pupils.

The school building

The school building is not well designed for its current purpose and it would be very expensive to modernise. It is on a shared site, where access can be difficult.

Alternative Provision

A vitally important feature of any consultation on the closure of a maintained school is the availability of alternative provision for the pupils should the school close. Consideration must be given to the types of alternative provision available, the distances that pupils will need to travel and the standards of provision offered.

Lancashire's commissioner of alternative provision has identified a number of providers who will be able to offer places to meet the local authority's statutory duty of providing for pupils who are permanently excluded from primary schools. Hendon Brook currently provides for pupils from the four districts of Pendle, Burnley, Hyndburn and Rossendale and it is unlikely that the total distances travelled by pupils will be substantially greater than they are now, if the school were to close. As part of the commissioning process, consideration will be given to ensuring places are identified as close to pupils' home districts as possible.

School Management Committee Members

In recent months, local authority officers have been in discussion with school management committee members over the future of the school. After considering all options, the management committee members agreed to proceed with a proposal to close the school.

Closure of Schools and the School Organisation and Governance Regulations

There is a defined statutory process in the School Organisation (Establishment and Discontinuance of Schools) Regulations 2013 which must be followed before making a decision on the closure of a maintained school. This is supplemented by further guidance on the process published by the Department for Education.

There are 5 stages to the statutory process which must be followed:

Consultation

The issue of this document marks a period of consultation during which the views of any interested parties are sought and which will be considered before any move to the more formal stages of the process.

Publication

Dependent upon the outcome of the consultation, a decision to proceed to issue a statutory notice must be made by the Cabinet Member for Children and Schools.

Representation

Statutory notices for school closure define a minimum 4 week period for anyone to submit their written comments on the proposals. This enables people to express their views in the form of supporting or objecting to the proposals.

Decision

Within 2 months after the statutory notice period ends, the authority must make a decision on the proposal.

Implementation

If the proposal is approved, Hendon Brook Short Stay School will close with effect from 31 August 2020.

PART THREE

The consultation and decision making process

Timescales

9 September 2019 to 18 October 2019	Consultation
December 2019	Cabinet Member decision making session to consider the results of the consultation and decide whether to publish a Statutory Notice of the proposal
January 2020	Publication of Statutory Notice
January/February 2020	Representation (6 weeks)
April 2020	Final decision by Cabinet Member

Consultation Event

You are invited to express your views on the proposal at an event organised at Hendon Brook Short Stay School on Wednesday 25th September 2019 from 3.00pm to 8.00pm.

Please note that this will be an appointment led event, requiring interested parties to make a booking prior to the event. This will allow us to manage the process effectively, minimise waiting times and ensure that appropriate officers are available to offer advice and guidance relating to specific matters of interest.

Bookings can be made by telephone or email by contacting the School Improvement Service on 01772 531284 or Email Heather.Warburton@lancashire.gov.uk

The closing date for booking an appointment is Friday 20 September at 5pm.
