

Faith Engagement Consultation

The government has appointed a Faith Engagement Adviser, Colin Bloom, who has launched an open consultation to collect views that will underpin a Faith Engagement Review. He is particularly interested in hearing from these groups of people:

1. Members of the public who identify as having a religion, or people who have a faith.
2. Faith and Religious leaders (voluntary or professional) in places of worship or faith-based organisations and charities.
3. Public servants such as Civil Servants, teachers, the police and healthcare workers.
4. Anyone who is or has been engaged with the British Military in any capacity.
5. Anyone who is or has been engaged in the Criminal Justice System in any capacity.

SACRE members may wish to complete this consultation questionnaire, the link for which is www.gov.uk/government/consultations/independent-faith-engagement-review-call-for-evidence

The consultation closes on 11th December 2020.
