Executive Summary and Recommendation

The Urgency Committee is asked to consider any amendments to Standing Order 19(4) of the Constitution.

Background and Advice

Standing Order 19(4) says:

"The Leader and Deputy Leader of the main opposition group may as of right, attend meetings of the Cabinet and participate fully in discussion on all agenda items, but cannot vote. The Leader of the main opposition group shall be entitled to offer one of these places to the second largest opposition group."

The Urgency Committee is invited to consider the Standing Order.
