Brief Summary

A progress report on the implementation of agreed actions following the recommendations of the Public Realm Agreements Task Group report as adopted by the Environment, Economic Growth and Transport Scrutiny Committee.

Recommendation

The Environment, Economic Growth and Transport Scrutiny Committee is asked to:

- (i) Note and comment on the progress report.
- (ii) Determine, if required, when the next progress report be presented to the Environment, Economic Growth and Transport Scrutiny Committee.

Detail

Under S101 Local Government Act 1972 the County Council can pass functions to other local authorities. The Agreement needs to be clear as to what powers are being passed and the appropriate authority given under the Constitution.

On 21 September 2023, the Environment, Economic Growth and Transport Scrutiny Committee considered and received the Cabinet Member responses to the recommendations of the Public Realm Agreements Task Group. A progress report is set out at appendix 'A' for the consideration of the committee. A copy of the revised

Public Realm Meeting Agenda is set out at Appendix 'B', and a copy of the task group report is set out Appendix 'C'.

The Environment, Economic Growth and Transport Scrutiny Committee is asked to note and comment on the progress report and to determine, if required, when the next progress report be presented to the committee.

Appendices

Implications:

There are no significant implications detailed in the report.

Legal

S101 Agreements are important and involve delegation of actual functions . The changes to existing legal Agreements need to reflect what the Highway Authority requires and be properly authorised and agreed with the other local authorities

Finance

There are no significant financial implications detailed in the report.

Risk management

There are no significant risk implications detailed in the report.
