Brief Summary

This report seeks to provide the Health and Adult Services Scrutiny Committee with further details on emerging themes and survey responses.

Recommendation

The Health and Adult Services Scrutiny Committee is asked to:

- i. Review the information provided at Appendix 'A'.
- ii. Consider whether the NHS Shaping Care Together Programme constitutes a substantial variation of current service provision.

Detail

The Committee was presented with details on the Shaping Care Together case for change at the 18 September meeting. Further details including minutes from the meeting can be found here.

At this meeting, it was agreed that the NHS Shaping Care Together Programme constituted a substantial variation in principle but that further information on options be presented to a future meeting to confirm.

The information provided at Appendix 'A' includes further details on engagement, survey responses and emerging themes.

The Committee are asked to review the information provided and consider whether enough information has been provided to confirm that the programme constitutes a substantial variation to current service provision.
