

Date	Complainant	Summary of allegation	Outcome
December 2023	Member of the public	Poor conduct and lack of respect on social media	No breach – investigation by the Monitoring Officer concluded that there had been no breach and no further action should be taken.
January 2024	Member of the public	Inappropriate email correspondence	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.
February 2024	Member of the public	Not replying to correspondence	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.
February 2024	County councillor	Taking and sharing a photograph without consent	No breach, however the political groups were asked to remind their members of the Code's requirements.
March 2024	County councillor	Discriminatory comments	No breach – investigation by the Monitoring Officer concluded that there had been no breach, however the councillor was asked to apologise for the misunderstanding and the political groups were asked to remind their members of the Code's requirements. The councillor provided the apology as requested.
March 2024	County councillor	Offensive post on social media	No breach – investigation by the Monitoring Officer concluded that there had been no breach, however the councillor was asked to apologise and the political groups were asked to remind their members of the Code's requirements. The councillor provided the apology as requested.
March 2024	County councillor	Offensive post on social media	Councillor recommended to remove their social media post.

March 2024	County councillor	Disrespectful comments during a council meeting	Councillor asked to apologise. The councillor provided the apology as requested.
March 2024	District councillor	Using role as a county councillor for personal financial benefit	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.
March 2024	Members of the public	Offensive comments by several councillors during a council meeting	Councillors asked to apologise. The councillors provided the apologies as requested.
April 2024	Member of the public	Unhelpful and dismissive response to local concerns	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.
June 2024	Member of the public	Not upholding the Nolan Principles	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.
June 2024	Member of the public	Not disclosing a pecuniary interest	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.
October 2024	Member of the public	Offensive comments on social media	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.
October 2024	Member of the public	Offensive comments on social media	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.
October 2024	County councillor	Offensive comments during a council meeting	Councillor asked to apologise. The councillor provided the apology as requested.
November 2024	Member of the public	Ignoring local issues	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.

December 2024	Member of the public	Misleading comments on social media	No breach – councillor informed of complaint and reminded of the Code's requirements.
---------------	----------------------	-------------------------------------	---