Executive Summary and Recommendation

The Committee is asked to consider the Cabinet's recommendations in relation to the proposed new employee structure for Lancashire County Council.

Background and Advice

The Cabinet at its meeting on 9 October 2014 will consider a report on the proposed new employee structure for Lancashire County Council. A copy of the report is attached at Annex 1.

If the Council's proposed new structure is approved, the Cabinet will need to recommend the Urgency Committee to approve a number of matters relating to the Employment Committee and the appointments process.

The Cabinet's recommendations in relation to the proposed new employee structure for Lancashire County Council will be reported orally at the meeting.
