Executive Summary

In the context of fulfilling its responsibility to consider periodic reports of internal audit activity and outcomes, the committee is asked to consider the progress report and outcomes of the Internal Audit Service's work for the period to mid-March 2015 (Appendix A).

Recommendation

The Audit and Governance Committee is asked to consider the Internal Audit Service progress report for the period to mid-March 2015.

Background and advice

The committee may be interested to understand the internal audit work performed for the period, and council's senior management's responses to the control issues reported in relation to 2013/14.

Appendix A to this report summarises the findings of the internal audit work completed during the year to date.

Internal audit assurance

Internal audit assurance is stated in the following terms:

Full assurance: there is a sound system of internal control which is designed to meet the service objectives and controls are being consistently applied.

Substantial assurance: there is a generally sound system of internal control, designed to meet the service objectives, and controls are generally being applied consistently. However some weakness in the design and/ or inconsistent application of controls put the achievement of particular objectives at risk.

Limited assurance: weaknesses in the design and/ or inconsistent application of controls put the achievement of the service objectives at risk.

No assurance: weaknesses in control and/ or consistent non-compliance with controls could result/ have resulted in failure to achieve the service objectives.
